- ✓ Users without espresso machines looking for stovetop option

Who It Is Not For

- ✗ Automatic espresso machine users
- ✗ Users needing rapid brewing
- ✗ Those without stovetop access
- ✗ Dishwasher-safe preference

Trade Offs to Consider

---

- Manual operation requires stovetop access
- Brewing process takes 5-10 minutes
- Not dishwasher-safe (hand wash only)
- Learning curve for proper brewing technique

How It Compares

- Better than automatic machines for manual control
- Less efficient than French presses for volume
- Similar to other stovetop moka pots
- More complex than standard espresso machines

Choose This If...

- ✓ Choose this for authentic Italian espresso
- ✓ Prefer manual brewing control over automatic
- ✓ Value Italian design and heritage
- ✓ Need 9-cup capacity for gatherings

Skip This If...

- ✗ Seek automatic brewing convenience
- ✗ Need quick espresso preparation
- ✗ Prefer dishwasher-safe options
- ✗ Want simpler operation without learning curve
