Who It Is For

-  Busy professionals needing quick tea or coffee
-  Students in dorms with small space
-  Small households with limited counter space
-  Users prioritizing safe boiling over speed

Who It Is Not For

-  Users requiring more than 1 liter capacity
-  Those needing a stovetop kettle
-  Large families needing multiple kettles

Trade Offs to Consider

- Slower boiling than stovetop kettles
- Less capacity than 2-liter models
- No temperature control settings
- Requires counter space for base

How It Compares

- Faster than microwave but slower than stovetop
- Less capacity than 2-liter models
- No temperature control vs. smart kettles
- More compact than traditional kettles

Choose This If...
